ADVERTISEMENTS.

PAN-GYMNASTICS AND GENERAL RENERVATOR.—A PARTNER WANTED.—The fact that there does not exist at present some apparatus for general bodily exercise and gymnastics has been universally regretted, the more so, as these exercises are most beneficial in almost all cases, in some removing nervous and dynamic disease, otherwise incurable. A SET of MECHANISMS and APPARATUS has been therefore produced at much expense and labour, which being simple, non-obtrusive, and almost noiseless, may be used in any room, even of small compass, affording a gradually increasing and healthful muscular exercise to both sexes. As the apparatus of pan-gymnastics is to be patented, the inventor is desirous of meeting with a PARTNER in this undertaking of general utility, which, if properly carried out, might at the same time form a new branch of [illegible].—Communications to be made to J. L., at Mr. Collins's, Law [illegible], 23, Cursitor-street, Chancery-lane.

CLERK WANTED in a POTTERY. One who has been in a similar situation will be preferred.—Apply, by letter only, stating age, salary, and last employment, to A. B., Post-office, Cornhill.

TO BUILDERS' CLERKS.

WANTED, in a Builder's Office, in London, a YOUNG MAN who is a good Draughtsman, and has a knowledge of the office duties.—Address, stating particulars, age, salary required, and where last engaged, to R. C., Office of "The Builder," York-street, Covent Garden.

TO GAS-FITTERS AND BRASS FINISHERS.

WANTED, a first-rate GAS-FITTER. No one but a thoroughly competent man, and one who can have a good character for attention and sobriety, need apply.—Direct, pre-paid, to J. B., Post-office, Camberwell-green.

TO SHOP FOREMEN OF CARPENTERS AND JOINERS.

WANTED, by a London firm, a thoroughly experienced, active PERSON, in the above capacity, and who has previously filled a similar situation.—Address, stating particulars, age, and where last employed, to D. B., Office of "The Builder," 1, York-street, Covent Garden.

TO BRICKFIELD FOREMEN.

A SITUATION is now OPEN for a Man who understands his business, and is not above it; one who has gained his knowledge from actual practical experience in brick-field labour, knowing well the fair value of the same by piece. He must be capable of taking measurements, however difficult, and making all necessary memoranda. He will be required to make a daily return of goods received and sold, and to make up his accounts weekly, or oftener if required; in short, to make himself generally useful by means of both labour and judgment on all occasions; one who will not leave until to-morrow what ought to be done to-day. As a liberal salary will be given, no one need apply who is not prepared fully to answer to the above requirements. [illegible] of last employer, with reference as to character and ability, to be addressed, per post, stamped, to W. B., 5, [illegible]-street, [illegible]-hill, London, not later than the 28th inst.—[illegible] October, 1851.

TO ARCHITECTS OR BUILDERS.

A YOUNG MAN who has been engaged for the last seven years in the Office of an Architect of considerable practice (and to whom he can refer), is desirous of obtaining another SITUATION either with an Architect or in a Builder's Office. He is capable of superintending the execution of works, measuring, [illegible], drawing, and conducting a business generally under the direction of the principal.—Address to Y. Z., at Mr. [illegible], near the Railway Station, Highbury, Islington.

TO CIVIL ENGINEERS, SURVEYORS, ESTATE AGENTS, &c.

A PERSON of extensive experience in the above professions, wishes to obtain a SITUATION as ASSISTANT. He has been in the habit of conducting large surveys, receiving rents and rent charges, also has had much practice in levelling, setting out estimates for extensive work, is well acquainted with railway and hydraulic engineering, a good draughtsman, and can give twelve years' reference.—Address to T. S., Thomas and Churchill's Universal Advertising Offices, 19 to 22, Catherine-street, Strand.

TO CARPENTERS AND JOINERS.

WANTED to APPRENTICE (as out-door) a LAD, for five years aged sixteen, to a respectable master. A small premium will be given.—Address, post paid, to A. Z., Hathway's Newspaper Office, 16, Royal Exchange.

WANTED, by a Young Man, a Situation as FOREMAN of BRICKLAYERS.—Address, B. B., Smith's Coffee-house, Battle-bridge.

TO BUILDERS, PLUMBERS, PAINTERS, &c.

WANTED, by a Young Man, a Situation as a Three-Branch Hand in the above line. Age 23.—Address, A. B., No. 23, Wellesley-street, Euston-square.

TO BUILDERS.

WANTED, a SITUATION as SHOP or GENERAL FOREMAN of Carpenters and Joiners, by a young man well recommended by his recent employers.—Address J. D., 61, Lower Marsh, Lambeth.

WANTED, by a Gentleman, an Engagement in an architect's or surveyor's office; is a good draughtsman, and understands the general routine of an office. The country preferred.—Address, F. Z., Office of "The Builder," 1, York-street, Covent Garden.

TO BRICK AND TILE MAKERS.

WANTED, a SITUATION to Superintend a Brick-field, or to Manufacture any sort of Kiln-ware by contract, at per thousand, by a Young Man that has been brought up in the business.—Address, G. W., at T. Conduit's, near White Lion Brick-fields, Finchley, Middlesex.

TO PLUMBERS, DECORATORS, &c.

THE Advertiser, who is thoroughly and practically acquainted with the zinc trade, is desirous of joining a well-established firm who may wish to add this increasing business to their own.—Address (prepaid) to A. Z., No. 130, Great Dover-road.

TO ARCHITECTS.

A QUALIFIED ARCHITECTURAL DRAUGHTSMAN is open to an ENGAGEMENT in town or country. Terms moderate.—Address, C. D., Mardon's News Office, 11, Pleasant-row, Holloway.

TO BUILDERS AND PLUMBERS.

A PLUMBER, PAINTER, and GLAZIER, of good habits, and can be depended upon, in want of EMPLOYMENT, one that thoroughly understands the plumbing branches; any one in want of a man in the above branches can be well suited.—Address W. H., 34, Clifton-street, Finsbury-square.

AN experienced Surveyor and Draughtsman, accustomed to lay out building land, furnish designs, specifications, estimates, to superintend, measure, and value works, &c. &c., and who is also a good accountant, desires a RE-ENGAGEMENT.—Address, OMEGA, 1, Park-lane, Church-street, Chelsea.

TO ARCHITECTS AND SURVEYORS.

A YOUNG MAN, whose care and rapidity as a draughtsman and general practical knowledge of the profession will be satisfactorily certified by several eminent architects, is now open to a RE-ENGAGEMENT. Salary moderate.—Address, ARCHITECTUS, 2, Oxford-terrace, Clapham-road.

TO ARCHITECTS AND BUILDERS.

A YOUNG MAN is desirous of an ENGAGEMENT with an Architect or Builder. He is competent to make fair working, detail, and perspective drawings, and is accustomed to the usual routine of an Architect's office. Small salary required.—Address to E. F., Office of "The Builder," 1, York-street, Covent Garden.

COMPETITIONS.

TO ARCHITECTS AND OTHERS.

THE Committee of the Abergavenny Races are desirous of receiving PLANS and SPECIFICATIONS for a RACE-STAND, comprising Bar, Refreshment, and Weighing Rooms, with accommodation for spectators on first-floor and roof. Being in the immediate neighbourhood of the iron district, and the present prices very low, the Committee recommend the adoption of that material, and the preference will be given to the plan that will admit of its future conversion or removal. The Committee intend limiting their outlay to 300l., and 5l. will be given for the best design.—Sealed plans and letters, prepaid, to be sent in on or before November 15th, to Mr. T. V. MORGAN, Secretary to Race Committee, Angel Hotel, Abergavenny.

CONTRACTS.

TO CONTRACTORS FOR MAKING ROADS.

TENDERS are required for the Formation of ROADS on an Estate at BROMLEY, KENT. The plan of the ground and particulars of the work may be seen at our offices. JOHN YOUNG and SON, Architects and Surveyors. 22, King-street, Cheapside, October 16.

GREAT BRITAIN STEAM-SHIP.—To Mine Proprietors, Water-work and Land-drainage Companies, Contractors, Manufacturers, and others.—The Proprietors of this ship desire TENDERS for the whole (or for any definite section that would not prejudice the entirety of the remainder of) her STEAM MACHINERY, as originally constructed, consisting of four 88-inch cylinders of 6 feet stroke, with pistons and rods; air-pumps and condensers, connecting-rods and guides, and all the detail of nozzle and valve gearing necessary to render each pair of cylinders complete in themselves, from the pistons to the crank pins.—Apply to Mr. CROOME, Civil Engineer, or Captain MATHEWS, on board the vessel, Sandon Graving Dock; or GIBBS, BRIGHT, and Co., Liverpool.

TO CONTRACTORS, EXCAVATORS, &c.

THE Directors of the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway Company are prepared to receive TENDERS for the EXCAVATION and DREDGING of PART of the HARBOUR at NEWHAVEN, immediately adjoining the Company's Wharf. The plan and specification may be seen at the office of the Company's Engineer, London-bridge Terminus, on and after Monday, the 27th inst.; and sealed tenders, properly endorsed, must delivered to the Secretary not later than noon on Monday, the 10th proximo.—N.B. The directors will not be pledged to accept the lowest, or any tender.

FREDERICK SLIGHT, Secretary.

London Terminus, October 21, 1851.

TO BUILDERS.

EXCAVATORS and Masons, Carpenters and Joiners, Slaters, Plasterers, Ironfounders and Plumbers, Painters and Glaziers, willing to CONTRACT for the whole or any portion of the WORKS required to be done in the ERECTION of BOYS', GIRLS', and INFANT SCHOOL-HOUSE, in the parish of Stainland, Halifax, for JOHN CROSSLEY, Esq., may inspect the drawings and specifications at the offices of Messrs. PERKINTON and CRAVEN, Land Surveyors, Crown-street, Halifax, on and after Thursday, the 23rd instant. Any information may be obtained of either of the above gentlemen, or of the Architect, Mr. JOSEPH JAMES, 22, St. Mary's-road, Islington, London. Sealed tenders, addressed to Mr. CROSSLEY, will be received on Wednesday, the 29th instant. Security will be required for the due performance of the works; and the lowest tender will not necessarily be accepted.

TO BUILDERS.

YOUGHAL UNION WORKHOUSE AND INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.—Builders and others are invited to deliver TENDERS for the execution of the several works required to be performed in the ERECTION of a WORKHOUSE and an INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL, proposed to be built at YOUGHAL, county CORK. The plans and specifications may be seen on application to the Clerk of the Union at Youghal, from the 16th to the 28th instant; and on and after the 28th instant they may be seen at the Offices of the Poor Law Commissioners, Dublin. Sealed tenders must be forwarded, under cover, directed "The Poor Law Commissioners, Dublin, Tender for   Workhouse," and must be received before Four o'clock p.m. on the 6th day of November, 1851. The tenders must be made agreeably to the printed particulars relating to building contracts lodged with the plans and specifications, to which parties are referred for all further information relating to the proposed contract. Note.—One tender will be received for both buildings, or a separate tender for each. The lowest tenders will not be necessarily accepted.

Dublin, 4th October, 1851.

TO BUILDING CONTRACTORS.

THE Magistrates of the County of Chester are prepared to receive TENDERS for the ERECTION of ADDITIONS to the HOUSE of CORRECTION at Knutsford, for the reception of 1[illegible] female prisoners, with wash-houses, laundry, matron's house, officers' quarters, infirmary, &c. Plans and specifications may be inspected at the offices of Messrs. J. and T. ROSCOE, Solicitors, Knutsford, on and after MONDAY, the 6th October; and further information may be obtained at the office of Mr. ALEXANDER W. MILLS, Architect, Exchange-chambers, Manchester. The quantities are being taken by Mr. William Wilson, surveyor, of Manchester, and will be ready for delivery on and after Saturday, the 1st November. A charge of [illegible] will be made for a copy of the quantities, and [illegible] for a printed copy of the specification. The party employed to do the work will, in addition to the above, have to pay Mr. Wilson for taking the quantities. The whole of the work will be let in one contract, and sealed tenders, endorsed, "Tender for Alterations at Knutsford House of Correction," are to be sent to the office of Messrs. J. and T. ROSCOE, Knutsford, on or before Thursday, the 13th November next; but the Magistrates will not be bound to accept the lowest tender.—Knutsford, Sept. 30.

J. and T. ROSCOE.
